

WRSSAR Memorial Day Program

Wednesday, May 13, 2009
11:45 a.m.

At Judson Manor
1890 E. 107th Street
Cleveland, Ohio

Cost is $15.00 per person for lunch

“National Honor and Service Museum, Washington D.C.”

Our Speaker will be
Ray Saikus, President
Equal Honor For All

Ray Saikus, a Consulting Engineer and current president of Equal Honor For All and past president of the Joint Veterans Commission of Cuyahoga County, will speak on the National Honor and Service Museum in Washington, D.C proposed by the Equal Honor For All Organization, and about the Liberty Veterans Honor Garden proposed by the Joint Veterans Commission of Cuyahoga County. The latter project will honor all of our allies who fought beside our patriots, on our soil, during the Revolutionary War and those allies who fought with our Armed Forces during subsequent wars.

Flag Day Program

Typically WRSSAR meets for lunch on the second Wednesday of June. This year, we are collaborating with the Moses Cleaveland Chapter of the DAR on Tuesday evening, June 9, 2009 at 6:00 p.m. for dinner at the Shaker Heights Country Club. The featured speaker will be Dr. Eugene Sanders, Superintendent of Schools in the city of Cleveland.

Full details on this program will be included in our June meeting notice which will be mailed to you after our May 13, 2009 meeting.
